SIXTEEN DAYS OF FIERCE FIGHTING

London Dispatches Admit That Battles Fail to Bring Results.

CITY OF MONS BURNS.

British-French Armies Thought to Have Raided German Communications North of Fighting Grounds.

London, Sept. 28.—Sixteen days of fighting, fourteen in the battle of the Aisne and two in a rear guard action, have failed to bring decisive victory to either side in France. This was officially admitted at the war office today, coupled with the statement, however, that all of the advantage remains with the allies.

While the censorship is more strict than at any time since the opening of hostilities it is explained that there are certain evidences, especially on the extreme left, that the Germans are weakening.

The allies have been heavily re-enforced and are subjecting the forces of Von Boehm and Von Kluck to stern pressure along the line from Soissons north to Mons.

In this connection a report telegraphed from Ostend that Mons was burning created a sensation here today. It is at Mons that General Von Boehm established his headquarters when he started south from Brussels with the main army that was operating in Belgium. His army was assigned to prevent Von Kluck being outflanked by the French army, operating from the northwest, presumably Boulogne, where it had been gathered to support a new British force, the details of which are still withheld from the public.

If it is true that Mons actually is burning, it may mean that the British-French armies are in strong force and have raided the German communications far north of the point where up to the present any fighting has been reported.

Paris, Sept. 28.—Not since the opening of the war have the military authorities been so chary of information as at present. The usual 3 o'clock resume of the progress of the fighting was utterly non-committal. It merely emphasized the fact that there had been no change in the situation. This, however, apparently disposed of the report that by a sudden raid the allies had driven the Germans from Mons, which this particular rumor said, was burning.

Military authorities here who up until today have been willing to discuss the general outlook, today were mum. They privately admit that the great battle of the Aisne is in its closing stages and that every effort is being made to hold the general lines intact while the allies crumple up the German right wing, which now, more than ever, resembles a fish-hook. It is obvious that great masses of fresh troops are being pushed into action.

MASONIC VISITATIONS.

Grand Master Bauman to Visit Clarendon Tonight.

Most Worshipful P. K. Bauman, of Fredericksburg, grand master of Masons in Virginia, will pay an official visit to the Masonic Lodge at Clarendon tonight.

He will be accompanied by Henry K. Field, of this city, grand junior warden of the grand lodge.

Frank W. Latham, of this city, district deputy grand high priest, will pay an official visit tonight to the Royal Arch Chapter at Leesburg.

FINED FOR FIGHTING.

Justice Caton, in Police Court today, sent George Williams and Lee Walker to jail for 90 days and imposed a fine of $10 each, for fighting on the streets. The fight took place on Wednesday at the corner of Alfred and Wolfe streets, during which Walker was slashed cross the breast and Williams had his left ear bitten off.

NEWS OF THE DAY

An epidemic of typhoid fever is reported among the Germans before Antwerp. Large numbers are said to have been stricken.

A Bucharest dispatch to the Petrograd, Novoe Vremya says it is rumored that the first Roumanian army corps has been ordered to the Austrian frontier.

Edward Rehil, a member of Camp 171, United Confederate Veterans, died yesterday at the Confederate Memorial Home, Washington. Mr. Rehil, or Riel, was born in Cavan, Ireland, seventy years ago.

A fire of unknown origin in the stables of the American Ice Company, at Fifteenth and E streets northeast, Washington, early yesterday, burned to death 16 heavy draft horses, and destroyed other property the total loss being $8,000, which is covered by insurance.

The London Times publishes the following dispatch from the "well informed Geneva paper, La Suisse:" "A Basle dispatch says that the Kaiser is ill with inflamation of the lungs. The Emperor's illness is the result of falling into a trench that was filled with water."

A dispatch from Bordeaux says it is reported there that the German commander at Muelhausen committed suicide in despair over his inabilty to pass the Vosges. He previously had telegraphed the members of German general staff to come and see for themselves how difficult was the task imposed upon him.

Yesterday morning (probably Saturday) at 5 o'clock a German Zeppelin appeared above Warsaw and dropped many bombs, killing three soldiers. The airship was fired upon but succeeded in escaping to the vicinity of Novo Georgiewsk (formerly called Modlin, 20 miles northwest of Warsaw), where the guns of the fortress brought it down.

An official statement was issued at Antwerp, stating that a detachment of German troops, consisting of an infantry brigade, two regiments of cavalry, and six batteries of artillery, were surprised by the Belgian troops at Alost while marching in the direction of Brussels. Attacked simultaneously in the front and rear, the Germans retired in disorder, abandoning their wounded and ammunition wagons. Many prisoners were taken.

Gorged with poultry and cats eaten in the neighborhood in which it had lived three months, since it escaped from a carnival company here July 4, a twenty-one foot python was found near the public library at South Bend, Ind., Saturday by three boys. It was placed in a box by men. The snake had come out to sun itself after the rains. Ever since the big snake escaped mothers have guarded their children. Poultry owners have missed chickens, house cats have been lost and strange hissing noises have been heard.

A French lieutenant, M. Verlin, is the hero of the day as the result of an affair in which he was the main figure Saturday. The lieutenant and 50 men of his company were reconnoitering 10 miles in advance of the main body on the Oise River when they encountered 5,000 Germans. The Frenchmen took refuge in nearby woods and from this shelter fired volleys until only 13 of their detachment remained alive, and of these four were wounded. The party then crept away. The Germans hesitated to attack the woods for fear of a trap.

Bernard Grnt, telegraphing to the London Daily Mirror from Ostend says: "Three prisoners whom I met today and who had lately come from Brussels, insisted that it was true that Prince Adalbert, one of the Kaiser's sons, had died there from a wound some time ago and that the bullet removed from his body was a German one, proved that he had been shot by one of his own men. Dr. De Paye, the most famous surgeon of Brussels, attended him and, it is reported, was offered $25,000 if he succeeded in saving the prince's life. Both the Kaiser and the Kaiserin, the prisoner said, were at the deathbed and remained for the funeral, which was military in character."

BERLIN CLAIMS DISTINCT GAINS

General Staff Reports That Allies Have Been Driven Back.

HOLD LINES OF RAIL.

Allies Heavily Reinforced on Kaiser's Right—Making Supreme Efforts to Outflank Invaders.

Berlin (via The Hague), Sept. 28—While still maintaining the position that there have been no really decisive changes at any part of the 125 mile battlefield, the report of the German general staff today is a trifle more optimistic than anything issued since the battle of the Aisne began.

It states that there have been distinct gains by the German center, which has driven the enemy back with heavy losses. The armies operating through Varennes have succeeded in forcing the French back on Clemont, on Aire, and on St. Mennehold and now hold the main highways and the railway lines in the vicinity.

On the heights of the Meuse the Germans continue to maintain their advantage and are in strength on the west bank of the river. The bombardment of the Meune forts south of Verdun continues with perceptible success, according to the general staff.

On the German right, it is stated the fighting is of the most bitter character, with the enemy plainly throwing all of his available force into the fight in the effort to break through the German line. It is officially stated that at no point has he been successful, while at a number of points the Germans have advanced their lines.

Attempts on the part of the Belgians to make a sortie from Antwerp have been frustrated and many prisoners and an armored car have been taken.

Discussing the actual fighting, the war office declared that heavy losses have been inflicted on the allies by German bayonet charges and that as a result the allies have been obliged to call upon their reserves to strengthen their lines.

It is stated that, although the range and service of the enemy's artillery has materially improved, the Germans continue to gain ground. The allies have been heavily re-enforced on the German right, it is stated and are making a supreme effort to outflank the German line and to break through at several points. In every instance these forces have been repulsed, says the official statement.

The Germans advance into Russian Poland is being pushed with vigor, it is stated, and official denial is made of the Russian claim that the Germans have been defeated in the Suwalki district.

URGED TO SELL MONTICELLO.

Secretary Bryan Writes Letter to Owner of Jefferson Home.

Washington, Sept. 28—It became known tonight that Secretary Bryan has written to Rerpresentative Jefferson Levy, of New York, urging him to consider selling Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson, to the government. Mr. Bryan suggested that Mr. Levy might retain a life interest in the property, but added that the present seemed to be a fitting time to make the deed as it would "commemorate the great Democratic administration of President Wilson."

A bill to authorize the purchase of the property is pending in Congress.

BOMBS DROPPED IN PARIS.

Man Decapitated And Girl's Legs Severed Above Knees.

Paris, Sept. 28.—A Taube aeroplane which flew over Paris yesterday morning dropped five bombs. One struck the intersection of the Avenue Trocadero and the Rue Freycinet. Three landed in different streets in the Trocadero quarter, and the fifth fell in the Bois du Boulogne.

The German aviator flew, apparently, at a height of about 10,000 feet, and was invisible in the dense mist. When the bombs began to shower on the fashionable residences at 11:30 o'clock the noise was deafening, resembling a bombardment.

The first bomb thrown, the one which landed in the Avenue Trocadero, wrought deadly havoc. Worshipers were thronging out of the American Church and the Church of St. Pierre de Chuillot near by, when the death-dealing missile launched by the hidden enemy aloft swooped down among them with a fearful crash.

An aged solicitor and his young granddaughter, walking hand in hand along the avenue, were struck down by fragments of the exploding bomb.

The aged man was decapitated and his body was terribly riddled, while the litle girl lay beside his body with both her legs practically severed above the knees.

A few feet away the facade of the Prince of Monaco's mansion was shattered by grape shot from the exploding bomb. All the windows were broken and the walls were punctured. The mansion was unoccupied except by the caretaker, who escaped uninjured.

Jake Long, colored, charged with improper conduct on the street, was fined $5.

Two young white men, charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited their collateral by failing to appear.

Two white men, charged with a similar offense, forfeited their collateral by failing to appear. Two others, charged with a similar offense, were dismissed.

Maud Newman, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed upon promising to leave the city.

George Davis, charged with throwing glass in the street, was fined $5.

George Williams and Lee Walker, both colored, charged with fighting, were fined $5 each.

BOER GENERAL JOINS ALLIES.

Bordeaux, Sept. 28.—The Boer general, Francois Joubert Pienaar, has arrived at Bordeaux to offer his sword to the allied armies.

"I fought against General French in South Africa, Now I am going to fight with him, "said the General to the correspondent. "I commanded a Boer army opposed to him at Elandslaagte, where I received my baptism to fire in civilized warfare.

"I have offered my service unconditionally, and do not know as yet how I will be employed, but expect that it will be in an advisory capacity and that I will be attached in this manner to General French's staff.

"The war will be long and fierce. The German Army, which I know well is the finest fighting machine in the world, but we shall beat it in the end, because our armies are something better than a machine."

RUSSIAN ARMIES CONTROL PASSES

Czar's Forces Attempting to Head off Hungarian Troops.

BERLIN BY JANUARY 1

Rennenkampf Closely Pursuing Germans—Latter Retreating—Cholera Spreads in Budapest.

Petrograd, Sept. 28—The significant announcement was made at the war office today that the Russian armies, which are operating in Galicia now control all the six passes which penetrate the Carpathian mountains.

In addition, Russian troops are in force in the towns of Sztarna and Uzsok, having gone south from Lemberg and followed the rivers Opler and Nagy-Ag.

This movement has for its object the heading off of Hungarian re-enforcements which may be proceeding north in the hope of gaining Galicia through the Carpathian passes, and attempting a flank attack on the main Russian armies.

The Russians are today in force at Tarnow, fifty miles from Cracow on the main line of the railway.

While necessarily all plans are closely guarded, the declaration is freely made here the Russians will have entered Berlin by January next. The entire Russian active army is being moved. That part not required for the present operations is being placed in strategic locations where it can be used to fill the gaps in the active ranks as needed.

General Rennenkampf, in his original report, says that he is closely pressing the Germans, who are retreating probably because they have learned of the Russian successes in Galicia. In his report Rennenkampf repeats the rumor that Emperor William is now in personal charge of the German operations in the east.

Budapest, (via Rome) Sept. 28—Considerable apprehension is felt over the outbreak of cholera here.

Despite the stern repressive efforts of the authorities, it is admitted that fifteen new cases of the disease were reported today.

VIRGINIA'S MINERAL DEPOSITS.

Geological Survey Issues Bulletin Showing Production of $17,178,580 in 1913.

Richmond, Sept. 28—Interesting figures pertaining to the mineral production in Virginia are shown in the latest report of the United States Geological Survey, which has just been issued by the Department of Interior. According to the report the production in this State increased in value from $14,995,842 in 1912 to $17,178,850 in 1913. Of this amount, coal, which is one of the chief products, represented more than half of the total.

Virginia ranks relatively high among the States in the variety of mineral substances producted on a commercial scale, but somewhat low on the list in the value of the production. Virginia is the leading State in the production of iron pyrite used in the manufacture of sulphuric acid, and in the production of manganese ore, and is the only State in which rutile is producted. It also ranks first in the production of soapstone, most of which is manufactured before being marketed into heat and chemical-resisting article, such as hearthstones, mantels, griddles, sinks, etc.

PEACE CONFERENCES.

Mexican Ammunition Factories Working Night and Day—Promises Villa Support—Cities Taken.

Washington, D. C. Sept 28—Efforts to patch the break between Villa and Carranza were scheduled today at Zacatecas, according to a message from Consul Carrothers to the White House today. It is stated that representatives of both Villa and Carranza will be present.

Whether this conference was instituted at the request of Carothers was not stated.

President Wilson, however, indicated that this Government is taking no direct hand in the row, although until recently the United States representatives in Mexico have done all in their power to avert the difficulty.

Carothers forwarded Villa's message, in which he insisted on Carranza's withdrawal as firfist chief and the succession of Fernando Calderon.

Chihuahua City, Mex., Sept 28—Immediate resignation of General Venustiano Carranza as First Chief of the Constitutionalists is the only basis on which General Francisco Villa will agree to settlement of differences between himself and Carranza. This was his reply to messages from officials in Mexico City, who protested against his attitude toward Carranza. Villa declared he never would accept Carranza as head of the Republic.

Juarez, Sept. 28—Despite the arrangement for a peace meeting between Gen. Francisco Villa and commissions of generals from his army, and that of President Carranza, General Villa continues his military operations and nearly all his mobile force of 30,000 men is now marching against the troops of Carranza. They have already occupied Zacatecas, in the central military zone, fronting the Carranza mobilization points at Aguaz Calientes. Reports that Villistas have occupied San Luis Potosi have not been confirmed.

A secret movement of troops into Sonora was discovered today when Villa's personal brigade, commanded by General Rodriguez reached the Sonora state line to co-operate with the revolutionary governor, Maytorena, in driving out Carranza troops under General Hill.

AGGRESSIVE MOVEMENT.

Alexandria Prohibition Movement Will War on Washington Saloons.

"On to Washington" will be the future slogan of the prohibitionists of Alexandria, according to announcement of some of the "dry" leaders today, who declare that they have already taken steps to organize for the purpose of arousing public sentiment throughout Virginia to the necessity of closing the saloons of the District of Columbia. It is probable that a permanent club will be formed with headquarters in this city. Many of the business men of Alexandria who voted against prohibiton last Tuesday, declare that they will join such an organization as the only remedy against evasion of the new law.

Alexandria county has already taken definate steps to have the saloons in Washington near the north end of the Aqueduct bridge closed. A mass meeting of citizens at which George H. Rucker, clerk of the courts, presided, passed resolutions calling on the excise board of the city of Washington to refuse licenses to saloons near 36th and M streets, Washington. A delegation of citizens from the county will appear before the board and urge that the licenses be not granted.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK IS IMPROVING.

From different sections of the country comes assuring news that the business depression, caused by the great European war, is gradually lifting. Announcement is made that the Parker mills of South Carolina, sixteen in number, operating 550,000 spindles and employing over 5,000 operatives has resumed full time—two of them working night and day. In explanation of this full resumption of activity it is stated that coincidentally with a marked improvement within the last two weeks in the demand for cotton goods from both foreign and domestic sources, the Parker company has been deluged with orders many of them urgent. This is particularly encouraging as showing that with the suspension of the German, French and English mills, America must become the cotton manufacturing center of the world.

From Detroit come reports that instead of curtailing their output the manufacturers of automobiles are preparing to enlarge their plants so as to be prepared to take care of orders that must come to the United States because of conditions abroad.

ACCIDENTS WILL HAPPEN.

An editorial in the Richmond Times Dispatch on accidents calls to mind the story told by Charles H. Calahan, commissioner of revenue, of a contractor who fell through an elevator well in a building on F St., in Washington for a distance of seven or more stories and escaped uninjured because the cellar was full of water. The same man lost his life a year afterwards by breaking his neck in a fall from a chair. Instances given by the Dispatch can be multiplied indefinately.

Von Moltke's son wore a suit of mail, but the top of his head was blown off by a shell. The forts of Liege were impenetrable but were penetrated. The Titanic was unsinkable, but sank. The British cruisers cost $4,000,000 each, and were proof against torpedo attack, but they went to the bottom in pieces, with all but a bare 778 of the enlisted men on board. A steel-built railroad coach crumpled like a sardine can. Out in Colorado the other day a man accidentally shot himself with a safety revolver. How many men cut their faces with safety razors, the record fails to say.

A baby jumped from a third-story window and escaped without a scratch, but a man crossing a footbridge slipped, fell four inches, and broke his neck. A man raised an umbrella in a storm and was killed by lightning that passed down the steel rod through his arm. It is nearly always the expert swimmer who is drowned, and somehow the buffoon who can't swim a stroke and rocks the boat, is the one to escape. Somewhere recently one of these daredevil automobile racers was knocked down by a milk wagon, unless the news reports jested, and went to a hospital with three ribs caved in.

PROPHETERS MAKES FORECAST.

Kaiser Dies September 29, War Ends November 7.

Paris, Sept. 28.—The famous Paris prophetess, Mme. de Thebes, added enormously to her reputation by the predictions in her almanac, published in January, that a European war would break out about the middle of the year, preceded by a sensational trial; that the Pope would die soon after hostilities had begun, and that the Germans would get near Paris without taking it.

This naturally warrants the tremendous interest which Paris is giving to her subsequent prophecies that the German emperor will be killed on September 29, that the French will enter Germany on October 29, and that the war will end on November 7.

KILLED BY CAR.

Landy Edwards, Printer, Horribly Mangled Under Wheels.

Petersburg, Va., Sept. 28.—Landy Edwards, a well known and respected resident of Terrace avenue, Blandford, was instantly killed about 10:30 o'clock Saturday evening by a car of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, on the Blandford line.

Mr. Edwards was a printer by trade and for a long while, and until recently, had been in the employ of the Daily Progress. He was about thirty-five years of age, and unmarried.

PEACHES GO TO WASTE.

Supply Far in Excess of Demand This Year.

Hagerstown, Md., Sept. 28.—Rather than be put to the useless expense of picking the fruit, several large peach growers in the Smithburg belt have decided to let a part of their peach crops go to waste.

Owing to the enormous crop this summer the price of peaches has dwindled to from 10 to 15 cents per basket, and these figures growers would lose money should they have the fruit picked and packed for shipment.

Circus Train Kills Man.

Newport News, Va., Sept. 28.—Horribly mangled, the body of an unidentified white man was found on the railroad tracks just above Morrison Saturday morning by a section foreman. Coroner Curtis of Warwick county, said that the man apparently had been dead four hours and it is thought that he fell from, or was struck by the circus train.

Beyond a slip of paper bearing the words "Curls Neck" and a name which was descriped to be Richard Peel, no marks of identification were discovered.

$2,000,000 to Suffragists.

New York, Sept. 28.—Suffrage circles have bee nthrown into a flutter of excitement by the report that the Baroness de Bazus, who was Mrs. Frank Leslie, and who died on September 10 last, left nine-tenths of her estate, estimated at $2,000,000 to the cause.

Weak Lungs Often Lead to Serious Illness

If you have weak lungs, you are generally subject to colds or throat trouble and easily susceptible to serious Lung Trouble. In many cases pneumonia or bronchial troubles leave the lungs in a much weakened condition. Eckman's Alterative is a medicine for the throat and lungs which has been found to be very beneficial, even when a change of climate and other treatments failed to bring relief. Read of this case:—

231 S. Atlantic Ave., Haddonfield, N. J.

"Gentlemen: In the fall of 1905 I contracted a very severe cold which settled on my lungs. At last I began to raise sputum, and my physician then told me I must go to California immediately. At this time I was advised to take Eckman's Alterative. I stayed at home and commenced taking it the last week in October. I began to improve, and the first week in January, 1906, I resumed my regular occupation, having gained 25 pounds, fully restored to health. It is now seven years since my recovery has been effected, and I cannot praise Eckman's Alterative too highly."

(Signed) W. M. TATEM.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

NEGRO MURDERED.

Alleged Slayer Voluntarily Surrenders to Police, But Denies Guilt.

Richmond, Sept. 28.—Six hours after he is alleged to have shot and instantly killed Otis James, colored, and while a rigid search was being made for him, Solomon Gibbs, colored, surrendered himself late Saturday night to County Officer John Shoemaker, and was lodged in the Henrico county jail, formally charged with murder. The shooting occurred at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, near Robert Garnett's store, in Varina District, twelve miles east of Richmond.

Gibbs, it is claimed, drew a revolver and deliberately, and without provocation, shot James, and then jumped on a bicycle and escaped before the witnesses to the shooting could interfere. After surrendering, Gibbs denied that he had fired the fatal shot, and said that James had been murdered by a companion during a dispute over a crap game.

MURDEROUS ATTACK.

Webb and Tim King, all colored, escaped from the Elizabeth City, N. C., chain gang late Friday night, or early Saturday morning, after stealing the firearms and other weapons from the prostrate guards. Both guards are said to be in a serious condition in Elizabeth City from the effects of injuries received in the attack.

Irvine is Confident.

Richmond, Sept. 28.—R. Tate Irvine, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Ninth District, arrived here Saturday on a visit to relatives. He was a caller at the office of Governor Stuart early in the afternoon, and spent an hour in conversation with Private Secretary Forward.

Mr. Irvine is confident of his election, reports coming to him from all parts of the district indicating heavy losses in the Republican ranks and confusion among the organizations of Progressives, or "Bull Moosers."

GIRL DIES OF POISON.

Young Woman of Baltimore Ends Life in Washington.

Miss Nelie M. Sherdan, 18 years old, of 1104 North Fulton avenue, Baltimore, want to Washington Saturday, engaged a room in a boarding house at 1913 G street northwest, and committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. Her body, lying across the bed fully dressed, was discovered yesterday morning after the door to the room had been forced open. Despondency, according to a statement of the girl's father to the morgue keeper, prompted the act. "I'm so lonesome," Miss Sheridan remarked to several inmates of the barding house before retiring to her room Saturday night.

Mr. Sheridan and his son-in-law went to Washington yesterday afternoon and identified the body.

As the case was so manifestly one of suicide, no inquest was held. Mr. Sheridan. told the morgue keeper that his daughter suffered from an attack of typhoid fever several years ago and since then had been despondent, despite the influences of a bright home, good environment and every effort to brighten her life.

SHELL FORTS OF ANTWERP

Attack Believed Planned to Keep Belgians from Making Sortie.

Antwerp, Sept 28—The Germans are shelling the outer fortifications of Antwerp with heavy guns. Already they are reported to have caused ramage to Forts Vaelhem and Wavre, and to the chain of fortifications which connect them. The fort are responding vigorously to the fire.

The guns being used are those with which the Germans yesterday bomborder Malines, killing many worshipers as they left church and setting fire to many buildings, including the hospital of the Little Sisters of the Poor. Fort Stombaut is reported to have been practically destroyed by the German shells.

So far as the bombardment of the defense of Antwerp is concerned it is believed the present action is intended to keep the Belgium army inside of the fortifications. The guns used are of the ordinary heavy siege type, and not the caterpillar pieces that caused the loss of Liege and Namur.

Antwerp is quiet and the general staff shows no concern over the latest developments.

STATE RELIGION FOR CHINA

Ceremony at Confucian Temple To-Day Believed to Be Beginning.

Peking, China, Sept 28—Between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock yesterday morning President Yuan Shi Kai officiated at the first annual ceremony at the Confucian Temple. The ceremony was eleborate. Special costumes, significantly copied after those of the ancients, had been designed for the President and other officers of the government as descendants of Confucius. Strict military precautions were taken because of the danger to which President was exposed when he left the palace a year ago.

Yuan Shi Kai, believing that China needed a religion and moral teaching and fearing that the ancient and respected customs would end with the birth of the republic, issued a mandate directing that Confucianism be again taught in the schools throughout the country, and appointing a day when the President, like the former monarchs, should repair to the Temple of Confucius. Christians and those of other faiths protested, and Yuan Shi Kai, in a second mandate, declared that he had no intention of creating a state religion. The general opinion, however, appears to be that yesterday's ceremony was equivalent to establishment of a state religion.

His friend, Frederick Kuhn, of No. 4748 Melrose street, who was riding behind him on the machine, escaped without a scratch.
